

Spanish I study guide for final exam

There are 2 parts to the exam

Part I --Oral Portion	25 points
Part II --Written Portion	75 points

Part I—Oral portion

- Will begin the week before the exam and finish the last day before exam.
- All make ups must be before school if you miss your scheduled day.
- You will be doing the majority of the talking this time
- Count on me asking you some basic questions as well
- I must be able to follow your topic and vocabulary.
- Goal of this section is to communicate.
- Speed isn't an issue, but should work toward 3 minutes min. for full credit
- No one else will be listening, so you won't speak in front of the class.
- You may not use any notes, and you should be able to use some newer vocabulary (of your choice).

Part II—Writing, verb conjugation and reading

- Usage of materials and vocab from first trimester
- AR verbs, how to use, conjugate and what they mean
- ER/IR verbs
- Stem-changing verbs (like tener, jugar, etc.)
- Usage of pronouns covered (direct objects, indirect objects, reflexives, etc.)
- How to form and answer basic questions
- Animals
- Reading in Spanish and letter format
- All newer learnables
- Countries, capitals, holidays
- Items in the home and any other materials covered this trimester
