

Spanish I study guide for first exam

There are 2 parts to the exam

Part I --Oral Portion	20 points
Part III—Multiple choice and/or written	80 points

Part I—Oral portion

- Will begin the week before the exam and finish the last day before exam.
- All make ups must be before school if you miss your scheduled day.
- You will have to start by spinning the question wheel and ask me a question or questions.
- Count on me asking you some basic questions as well
- I must be able to follow your topic and vocabulary.
- Goal of this section is to communicate.
- Speed isn't an issue, but should work toward 1- 1 1/2 –3 minutes min.
- No one else will be listening, so you won't speak in front of the class.
- You may not use any notes, and you should be able to use some newer vocabulary (of your choice).

Part II—Multiple choice

- Colors
- All numbers
- Calendar and holiday vocabulary
- Weather
- All question words
- Classroom items
- commands
- Telling time
- AR verbs
- Sports
- Ser, and estar
- Possession
- Clothing
- Learnables
- Family members
- Adjectives and agreement (describing people or things)
- Me gusta /me gustan