Remember that you must have taken the AP practice test in class or via Internet for 30 points of this exam

You must score above 25% to receive full credit.

You will get 10 points for 5-10%, 20 points for 10-24%.

You will receive 10 extra points for scoring higher than 50%

You will receive 15 extra points if you scored above 50% on the first practice and increased your score by 5% or higher.

There will be an essay graded AP style (1-5 as before). You will be expected to quote important sections of no fewer than 3 texts we have read in class citing them MLA style. You will not need a works cited, but you must be prepared with various quotes or sections to do well. You will not have sufficient time for quote digging or re reading.

Suggestions include using:

*Beowulf the epic or Grendel

*Any novel from King Arthur unit

*Canterbury Tales by Chaucer

*Paradise Lost by Milton

*"Modest Proposal" by Swift

*Your myth

*Sonnets or your own anecdote

Not all of the above may be suitable for the prompt or theme of the essay question. The only way to prepare for this section is having read all of the above, marking useful areas, and having good notes. No Internet materials may be used for quoted materials.
